

PLANNED PETHOOD, INC. CAT PLACEMENT APPLICATION

IN ORDER TO BE CONSIDERED FOR A CAT ADOPTION, YOU MUST:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Have legal identification with your current address.
- Understand that Planned Pethood reserves the right to refuse any applicant for adoption. Submitting an application does not guarantee you adoption of an animal. This is only the first step in our adoption process. We do not adopt out on a “first come, first serve” basis, nor do we hold cats.
- We prefer the entire family be present during the adoption process.

PLACEMENT FEE FOR ALL CATS/KITTENS IS NON-REFUNDABLE

4. How many pets have you owned in the last 5 years?
5. How many adults in this household? How many children, and what are their ages?
6. Who will care for your cat in your absence, such as vacation, emergency, etc.?
7. What if you are dating or plan to marry someone who does not like or want your pet, what will you do?
8. What would you do if you could no longer care for this cat?

9. The most common feline behavior problem is urinating out of the litter box. When a cat stops using the box, it is most frequently because the cat has a urinary tract infection; sometimes it is due to stress in the household, or changes in the litter or food. If this behavior occurs, how many of the following steps are you willing to take to keep your cat? Check all that apply:

- Purchase medication to modify behavior
 Move litter box to suit cat
 Purchase medication for infection
 Try a different brand of litter/food
 Thoroughly evaluate household changes
 Visit to vet
 Crate or isolate in a room to retrain proper litter habits

Please list all current and previous veterinarians' clinic name, phone, and the name your account can be found under.

You must contact your vet & give them permission to release records to us. Failure to do so may delay your application

Do you foresee any changes in your life in the next 15 years (average cat's life span) such as college, marriage, new baby, children, moving, retirement?			Explain:

By signing below, you are indicating you have answered every question truthfully and are aware that any false answers will be grounds for immediate rejection. You also give Planned Pethood, Inc. permission to access your vet records.

I understand the statements I have read about this cat are true, based upon the foster evaluation of the cat. I understand the cat might behave differently (positively or negatively) in my home. I understand that the cat may be litter box trained in the home of the foster but may relapse in my home. I understand the cat is represented to me as it performs in the foster home and the statements made regarding this cat are conditional to that foster home setting. I have read all the information about this cat, I understand that I cannot claim I did not understand the facts about this cat as understood by Planned Pethood, Inc. and/or the foster. I understand that the statements made regarding his cat are simply overviews and are not guaranteed. I understand that my adoption fee is non-refundable for any reason.

I agree to the above and certify that this is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.
